

Chi Omega Bridge Luncheon Slated

ROMANCE OF THE ORIENT

Festive in a Japanese theme, improvised with the use of pinks and greens, Los Verdes Country Club will be the setting for the Chi Omega Alumnae's annual benefit Bridge Luncheon on Saturday, March 11. With Japanese parasols, to be used as part of the decor, are from left, Mmes. J. M. Terry, president; C. H. Blake, luncheon chairman; and Gail Vosburg, corresponding secretary. The party will benefit the Garden Valley School for Mentally Retarded Children. Deadline for reservations is March 9.

(Press-Herald Photo)

For Retarded Children

A Japanese theme, featuring pinks and pale greens, will keynote the decorations for the South Bay Chi Omega Alumnae Association's ninth annual Bridge Benefit Luncheon. The festive event will be held at noon, Saturday, March 11, at the Los Verdes Country Club, 3020 Hawthorne Blvd., in the Palos Verdes Peninsula.

A social hour is planned from 11 to 12 prior to the buffet. Bridge follows and the afternoon will close with the awarding of a major door prize.

All proceeds will go to the Garden Valley School for Mentally Retarded Children. Services of the school for retarded and disturbed children are available to all South Bay residents. Since state funds are not available, the school is dependent upon parent cooperation, volunteer help and private and group donations.

Preparations for the event are being made under the direction of Mrs. Harold Blake, philanthropy chairman. Committee members are Mmes. Jean Terry, David Veiga, H. L. Wewer, Garrison Frost, Richard Strother, John McNeill, John Nelson, Gerald Monahan, Gail Vosburg and Richard Hale.

Reservations are open until March 9, and may be made by calling Mmes. Ronald Sullivan in Palos Verdes Peninsula, William Schneider in Hermosa Beach, William Franklin in Redondo Beach or Albert Stephenson in Palos Verdes Estates.

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MARCH 1, 1967

B-1

FASHIONS BY CANDLELIGHT

By candlelight, members and guests will see an array of new colors, design and materials making up spring's loveliest fashions when Las Vecinas Woman's Club presents its fashion "Kaleidoscope" next Friday at the Century Plaza Hotel. Lighting the tapers in the branched candelabra are, from left, Mmes. Thomas C. Leighton, member of the decorating committee; Jack R. Reed, publicity chairman; and William O'Neill, prize chairman.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Madrecitas To See Travel Films

Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Orthopaedic Hospital will take an adventurous trip, by colored slides, down the headwaters of the Amazon River, at their annual Founders meeting Friday evening, March 3 at 8 p.m.

The pictures will be shown by Pat and Jim Bowie, club members, who will also show films of an ancient Inca Sun Festival, high in the Peruvian Andes. The meeting will be held at the California Home Furnishings meeting room, 27700 Silver Spur Rd., Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Husbands and friends of Las Madrecitas members are invited. Champagne will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Honored guests will be members of Club Amistad y Ayuda.

Music Teachers Present

Benefit Concert Sunday

South Bay Branch of the Music Teachers Association of California will present its annual Scholarship Benefit Concert, Sunday, March 5, in the Vanderlip auditorium at Chadwick School in Palos Verdes at 3 p.m. Entrance to the school is at 4040 W. Palos Verdes Drive.

The young artist appearing is 17-year-old pianist, Nancy Waldman of Claremont. A high school senior, the guest artist has studied with Ralph Pierce of Pomona since she was five years old. In June 1966, she placed first in the Redlands Junior Artists competition and appeared with other winners in the Redland Bowl.

A graduate and winner in the MTAC certificate of merit program, she performed at the state convention in Santa Monica in 1966.

NANCY WALDMAN
... Guest Artist

At the age of 11, Miss Waldman performed the Hayden Concerto with the Claremont Symphony orchestra.

Her current program includes works by Bach, Beethoven, Schumann, Chopin and Roy Harris.

Dr. Nino Albanese of Redondo Beach is chairman of Sunday's concert. Assisting are Mrs. Harold Paulsen of Lawndale and Eugene Hemmer, resident-composer at Chadwick.

Tickets, which will be available at the door, may also be secured by calling Dr. Nino Albanese, Redondo; Mmes. Janette Christensen, Janice Lake or Gloria Simonson, Torrance; or Mrs. Lila Stefan, Redondo.

Cruising Into Spring

Victor Woman's Club will welcome guests aboard the SS Princess Louise for a Fashion-Luncheon Cruise on Friday March 17. Sailing time is 11 a.m. for cocktails followed by luncheon at noon. In the picture below, Mrs. Roger Orman, chairman, models a pink dress as she chats with Mrs. Fred Fenger in a new "pants suit," while Mrs. Merle Smith, wearing a new spring suit, watches Mrs. Daniel Kingston choose jewelry to wear with her shift. Other models are Mmes. Larry Lee, Don Beck, and Don Krant. Mrs. Dan Sayer is in charge of decorations and Mrs. William Dralle is handling door prizes. All club members and Mrs. Roger Orman are taking reservations. Proceeds will be used for the club's philanthropies.

(Press-Herald Photo)

National Vision Week

Local Auxiliary Promotes Project

To alert the public to the importance of good vision the week of March 5 through 11 has been designated as National Save Your Vision Week.

Doing their part in the observance, Women's Auxiliary to the South Bay Optometric Society is working on special projects.

Letters will be mailed to the PTA organizations in the South Bay-Harbor area schools informing them that speakers and films on the visionary problems are available, free of charge, as a public service. Also, the informative pamphlet, "Check Your Child's Vision" will be mailed upon request.

Posters alerting the public on the importance of good vision will be placed in downtown areas.

"We cannot over-emphasize the importance of good vision," states Mrs. Edwin L. Glover of San Pedro, president of the local auxiliary and chairman of the project. Virtually everything we do, everything we learn, everything we appreciate and enjoy depends upon our ability to see. Our daily lives and our ability to earn a living revolves around our sight, and without it, we are severely handicapped."

"Save Your Vision Week" committee members are Mmes. Glover, Joseph P. Bay, Rolling Hills; John E. Chase, Palos Verdes Peninsula; Alfred K. Corwin, Rolling Hills Estates; C. F. Pages, Eastview; Tom McMahon, Hermosa Beach; Robert E. Fleming, Bruce Ewing and Albert Kline, all of Torrance.

Kaleidoscope of Fashion

Vecinas Presents Benefit

Los Angeles Room at the Century Plaza Hotel will be the setting for the Las Vecinas "Kaleidoscope of Fashion" show and luncheon on Friday, March 3. A social hour is set for 11:30 a.m. and the luncheon at 12 noon.

Mrs. Arthur Grayson is serving as chairman of the fashion benefit and is being assisted by Mrs. Mel Hefflinger.

Mrs. Jay Kimose and her committee are in charge of decorating and Mrs. Lee O'Malley is heading the hostess committee. In charge of the many prizes to be awarded are Mrs. Thomas Leighton and Mrs. William McNeill. Major prizes are $500 in cash and an all-expense-paid weekend for two at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas.

Mrs. Jack J. Reed, publicity chairman, announces that the event is open to the public and that tickets may be secured by calling Mrs. Willard Colley or Mrs. Frank E. Carroll.

Proceeds from this festive affair will go towards supporting the many civic and philanthropic enterprises of the Las Vecinas Woman's Club.

ALERTING THE PUBLIC

The value of good vision will be brought before the public during "Save Your Vision Week," March 5 through 11, by members of the Women's Auxiliary to the South Bay Optometric Society. Choosing a car, with a license tag of "EYE," a bumper sticker is being placed by, from left, Mmes. Bruce Ewing, Robert Fleming, in the car, and Edwin Glover, auxiliary president. Special projects have been planned for the week.

(Press-Herald Photo)